

- A bar graph and pie graph are used to compare categories and parts of a whole respectively.
- A histogram is a bar graph that shows data in intervals.
- A line graph displays data that changes continuously over periods of time.
- A line graph which is a console unbroken line is called a linear graph.
- For fixing a point on the graph sheet we need, x -coordinate and y -coordinate

